EXAIREO is a small local Christian charity with a huge mission: to provide homes, counselling, training and jobs for people who have found themselves homeless. People find themselves homeless for a variety of reasons and, as you may know, the problem is getting worse. St Mary's has supported Exaireo through a once-a-year second collection, fund-raising, befriending, furniture and clothing donations and in many other ways. Pennie Sheppard, a worker at Exaireo, is coming here to talk about their work, at 7.30pm, on 29th September in the hall. Pennie's particular focus is how they try to improve the 'wellbeing' of the people they help and what we can do as a parish to support her initiative. Pennie is a parishioner here at St Mary's and is a lively and engaging advocate for 'works of mercy'. There will be no handouts or slides and the session will last no more than an hour. Please try to support it.

Psalter Week 1

PONDERING THE WORD OF GOD

On the Memorial of Saints Cornelius (Pope) and Cyprian (Bishop) last Friday, the Church proposed chapter 4, verses 7-15 from St Paul's second letter to the Corinthians as the first reading of the day. There we read, 'We are only the earthenware jars that hold this treasure...'

With these words Paul acknowledges that notwithstanding the weakness and fragility of human existence, God longs to abide in us, to infuse us and fill us with the immensity of His power and love. This divine life and power and goodness which God places deep within us, is to be nurtured and treasured and shared – Not squandered!

In last week's Gospel parable of the Prodigal Son, St Luke uses the verb "to squander" or, more accurately, "to scatter" when describing how the younger son wasted his inheritance. This week we hear of the dishonest steward who also "scattered" his rich boss' possessions.

These parables are relevant to us. They pose questions for reflection:

What have I "scattered" ? Have I disseminated or exuded goodness, kindness, love, positive and encouraging words from deep within my being? Or, from my darkness, have I "scattered" useless, harmful, destructive thoughts?

Fr Philip Sainter

CHANGE TO FRIDAY MASSES *** Please note that from the beginning of October 2016, Friday Masses will be at 9.15am with an additional Mass at 6.00pm on the first Friday of the month.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING CCRS MODULE: How should we live in the world? What does the Church teach about war and peace? about human rights and equality? about global warming and the environment? Details on how to find the answers are on our noticeboard!

SYRIAN REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT SCHEME: Charnwood Borough Council is asking us to let them know if we can offer either accommodation or support for asylum seekers/refugees under the Syrian resettlement programme. LEICESTER CITY OF SANCTUARY: Are you free on Thursday afternoons? Could you help with sewing or IT? LCS is looking for people willing to help with their sewing group and computer classes. Both take place on Thursdays from 1pm to 3pm at: Booth Hall, St. Martins House (next to Leicester Cathedral) 7 Peacock Lane, LE1 5PZ. The sewing group has a group leader to run the class. She needs someone who knows how to use a sewing machine to help people with individual projects when they get stuck. Knowing how to use a sewing machine is essential. The computer classes give asylum seekers the opportunity to learn some basic IT skills, use the Internet and get access to a printer/photocopier. They are looking for volunteers who could support people with basic internet access and word processing. They have a group/class leader, and you would only be needed to help people individually if they get stuck. shali@leicester.cityofsanctuary.org.
