FROM THE SAINTS: The soul that is united with God is feared by the devil as though it were God Himself (St John of the Cross, 1542-1591).

CONGRATULATIONS to our fourteen young parishioners who made their First Holy Communion yesterday (Saturday). Please keep them and also those who did so last month in your prayers. I would also like to thank Anne Murphy, Mary Hunt and Deacon David who have worked so hard in helping them prepare for this important day in their lives. Fr Paul

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION CERTIFICATES will be presented to all those who have made their First Holy Communion this year after the 11am Mass on Sunday 24th June in the hall. Fr Paul

FR ANGELO SOLONIRINA: We are delighted that Fr Angelo has now arrived. He looks forward to meeting all of you and participating in parish life. Fr Paul

FRIDAY 29th JUNE is the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul and is a Holyday of Obligation, which means one is bound to attend Mass unless prevented by a serious reason from doing so. Masses that day will be at 9.15am and 7.00pm.

Forthcoming Second Collections:

16th/17th June: Deacon David Jones, to show our appreciation for all that he does for St. Mary's and in honour of his Priestly Ordination which will take place on 30th June.

23rd/24th June: Day for Life NRCDT (National). This is the day in the Catholic Church's year dedicated to celebrating and upholding the dignity of human life. Following the 50th anniversary of the Abortion Act last October, we mourn the large annual number of abortions, which will doubtless increase following the recent Irish referendum, and ask that you continue to pray for the care and support of mothers and their children in the womb. Thank you.

TENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – Psalter Week 2

“I Have Come to Cast Out the Prince of this World”

In today's Gospel Our Lord has been healing and casting out demons, and it is evident from His words that there are two kingdoms: the kingdom of Satan and the kingdom of God. But with the coming of Our Lord, the kingdom of Satan is coming to an end. After all, Our Lord is the seed of the woman (Mary) who has come to crush the head of the serpent (Genesis 3:15). Our Lord also reveals that He has come not only to punish the devil, but to free those who are bound by him. He casts out demons simply by His word or by His touch, and He forgives sins, freeing us from bondage to Satan and evil. But be under no illusion - Satan is real – he is the leader of the fallen angels who rebelled against God, and we are under constant attack.

But never be afraid, because with Our Lord on our side, the devil and his army can never really harm us, but they will certainly try to. In the words of St Peter, “the devil is prowling round like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour” (1 Peter 5:8).

Genuine demonic possession, where a demon can take hold of someone's body, is very rare. However, dabbling with the occult, consulting fortune tellers or mediums or using Ouija boards can open the door to evil, and for this reason is forbidden by the Church (Catechism of the Catholic Church no. 2116) – so we should NEVER, EVER have anything to do with these things. They are very dangerous. Neither is there such a thing as “white” magic. All of these things have an evil origin, even if those involved don't realise it.

However, the normal way we are attacked is through temptation. Being fallen creatures, we are attracted by our base instincts of pride, greed, lust, anger, envy, sloth and gluttony (the Seven Deadly Sins). So we have to, with God's help and prayer, try to form the virtues in our lives which are the opposite of vice. But we will be tempted to choose what is bad for us. This is what happened in the Garden of Eden. The devil tempted Adam and Eve by lying to them, telling them that if they disobeyed God, they would become like God. Our Lord didn't call Satan the “father of lies” for nothing! The way to protect ourselves is through prayer, confession and Holy Communion.

We must pray to always choose God's Will. Try to put bad thoughts out of your mind. It may be a battle, but every time we resist for the love of God, we grow in grace and virtue. And never despair. Remember, God showed His infinite love for us by dying on the Cross to save us. He will never let us down if we call upon Him.
