FROM THE SAINTS :“When once men recognize, both in private and in public life, that Christ is King, society will at last receive the great blessings of real liberty, well-ordered discipline, peace and harmony” (Pope Pius XI, 1922-39).

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL: Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God thrust down to hell Satan and all the wicked spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen

REPARATION FOR ALL THE SINS OF THE CHURCH AND FOR HEALING: A lay-led initiative has suggested that Friday 30th November be a day of prayer with public devotions in parishes for the above-mentioned intention. This has also been commended by Bishop Patrick. Therefore, we will have a service of Reparation at St Mary's on this day at 7pm with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and prayers of reparation. Fr Paul

TO MARK THE CANONISATION OF ARCHBISHOP OSCAR ROMERO, the Bishop has invited Clare Dixon to visit our diocese. Clare is the Head of CAFOD's Central American Programmes, and is very knowledgeable about the legacy of Archbishop Oscar Romero. She will speak and answer questions on this topic on Monday 26th November, 7.30pm-9pm, in the Becket Catholic Academy, The Becket Way, West Bridgford, Nottingham. NG2 7QY.

MADONNA AND CHILD CHRISTMAS STAMPS are now available. Please insist on these as they are not always promoted by the post offices.

CHRIST THE KING

Psalter week 2

Christus vincit, Christus regnat, Christus imperat!

Today's Solemnity of Christ the King was instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925, and one of the reasons was to remind us that Christ is King not only of our private lives, but of our public lives too. As we know only too well, there are many attempts today to silence the voice of religion, especially Catholicism in the public sphere, and we are told to keep our faith at home. Secularism and atheistic values have already largely replaced what was once Christendom, and we see the state of the world as a result. The fact is we cannot do without God. If we could, Our Lord would never have come to this earth. But He did come and bring us the Gospel, and only by believing in Him and accepting His teaching will there ever be lasting peace and prosperity.

Since we believe that Christ is God, it follows He is King of all creation. He is King of the universe and the whole cosmos, and we must serve Him alone. Therefore let us not be afraid to bring our faith in Him into society. As Pope Benedict XVI said in his memorable speech to the British Parliament in Westminster Hall in 2010:

“Religion, in other words, is not a problem for legislators to solve, but a vital contributor to the national conversation. In this light, I cannot but voice my concern at the increasing marginalisation of religion, particularly of Christianity, that is taking place in some quarters, even in nations which place a great emphasis on tolerance. There are those who would advocate that the voice of religion be silenced, or at least relegated to the purely private sphere. There are those who argue that the public celebration of festivals such as Christmas should be discouraged, in the questionable belief that it might somehow offend those of other religions or none. And there are those who argue – paradoxically with the intention of eliminating discrimination – that Christians in public roles should be required at times to act against their conscience. These are worrying signs of a failure to appreciate not only the rights of believers to freedom of conscience and freedom of religion, but also the legitimate role of religion in the public square.” (Pope Benedict XVI, 17th September 2010).

Always remember, it was through Christianity that humanity came to realise the truth that all human beings have the same dignity, no matter what stage of life they may be at and therefore have rights. It was through Christianity that slavery was recognised as an evil and then gradually eliminated. All religions are not the same and today's Solemnity reminds us of this. If we exclude Our Lord and His teachings from public life, we only give room for anti-Christian values to take hold, and this is never good for mankind. In the words of the Laudes Regiae (The Royal Praises) “Christus vincit, Christus regnat, Christus imperat!” (Christ conquers, Christ reigns, Christ commands!).

PARENTS WITH SMALL CHILDREN: In so far as is possible, would parents please try to avoid allowing their children to rush out to the toilet or re-enter the church during the Consecration of the Mass. It is the most sacred part of the Mass and we all need to be really concentrated and prayerful. Thank you.
Fr Paul

EXAIREO: The second collection next weekend (1st/2nd December) will be for our local Christian charity, the Exaireo Trust, that cares for homeless men and women by giving them homes, education, training, counselling and support. Our collection helps finance their Christmas lunch, held mid December, and also provides money to buy Argos vouchers for the children of residents, many of whom are separated from their parents. There will be a brief appeal at all Masses this weekend. Please give generously.
