The Good Shepherd Will Lead You to Eternal Life

This Sunday, the Fourth of Easter is also known as Good Shepherd Sunday and is the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. JESUS tells us in today's Gospel that He is the Good Shepherd Who knows His sheep and promises to lead them to eternal life so long as they remain safe in His care. Each member of the flock has free will and is capable of wandering away from Him and even rejecting Him. The world, the flesh and the devil are always trying to confuse us and lead us away from Our Lord. But if we pray and try to resist temptation He will guide us safely home. The Apostles risked their lives to preach this truth and in today's First Reading they boldly proclaim that JESUS is the only Name under which we can be saved (Acts 4:12) – perhaps not very politically correct these days when it is claimed all religions are equally good, but the Apostles preached the truth.

Satan has attacked many noble institutions to try and bring about our downfall. One of his targets in this has been the priesthood. We are all aware of the many scandals of recent decades involving either sex, money or power. Our Lord in today's Gospel speaks of the hired hands (a reference to the clergy), who when danger comes, either run away or behave like wolves in disguise. God will hold them accountable for their deeds, and for either abandoning their flocks or for deceiving the faithful by preaching false or compromised doctrines.

Vocations have also been under attack where Satan tries to prevent people from hearing and answering God's call. One reason for the shortage of priests and religious is that many whom God calls simply don't hear it because they are distracted by the attractions of this world, and with society having become so secular many are not interested in responding. The trap is that people can become so self-absorbed as to forget completely that we have to prepare now for eternity. It is for this reason the Church has an annual World Day of Prayer for Vocations so that the Church will have enough true shepherds to guide us, and all will realise they will only be truly happy when they answer the call of Our Lord. We are all members of Christ's flock and whatever state of life He calls us to - priesthood, religious, married or single, we have an important contribution to make to the life of the Church and in the saving of souls.

JESUS is the Good Shepherd Who leads His sheep to safe pasture. Young people are attracted to the Church because they are seeking truth and the meaning of life, and JESUS and the Catholic Church which He founded is that truth. Let us pray ever more fervently for vocations to the priesthood and for male and female religious (the Prayer for Vocations is on the back of this newsletter) who will continue to feed the flock with the beauty of Christ's truth. There is no other truth. JESUS said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through Me" (John 14:6). Please also remember to pray for your priests that we be faithful servants of Our Lord and feed the flock entrusted to our care with that truth that leads to eternal life.

Fr Paul Gillbam, IC

The First Holy Communions last weekend went beautifully. Thank you to all who helped with the organisation. There will be three more groups this weekend and then one more at 11.15am Mass on Sunday 2nd May. Application forms for this year's First Holy Communions will be available soon after. Fr Paul

World Day of Prayer for Vocations, Sunday 25th April – Good Shepherd Sunday: This Sunday is our yearly opportunity to reflect on the Vocations to Priesthood and Religious Life. Also, we can contribute to the Clergy Formation Fund which helps train our future priests and contributes to our priests continuing formation. Please pray for the priests who serve you and encourage the young men [and may be the unattached young at heart!] to either consider the call to priesthood for themselves or encourage among their peers those whom they think would make good priests.

Month of Our Lady and Feast of St Joseph the Worker: Next Saturday is 1st May and May is the month of Our Lady. Saturday is also the Feast of St Joseph the Worker. There will be an extra public Mass for this Feast on Saturday at 10am before Exposition and Confessions. St Joseph would have recognised the great sanctity of Our Lady and that she belonged totally to God. Many of the saints tell us that when St Joseph found out Mary was pregnant he would never have suspected her of any infidelity. On the contrary, he would have recognised that God was doing something very special through her. It is possible he even recognised the presence of Our Lord within her virginal womb just as St Elizabeth did at the Visitation. So let us never say, as we so often hear, that when St Joseph discovered Mary was with child he thought she had been unfaithful. NEVER!

Fr Paul

Closing date: 4/5/2021

Prayer for vocations to the priesthood and religious life

Leader: Please kneel for our prayer for vocations. Let us ask God to give worthy Priests to His Holy Church and Brothers and Sisters to Religious Orders.

All: O God, we earnestly beseech You to bless this diocese with many priests, brothers and sisters, who will gladly spend their entire lives serving Your Church and making You known and loved.

Leader: Bless our families. Bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for Your work.

Leader: Mary, Queen of the Clergy!

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael: Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God thrust down to hell Satan and all the wicked spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

A Spiritual Communion: My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to possess You within my soul. Since I am unable at this moment to receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as being already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Day of Prayer for Survivors of Abuse 2021: Pope Francis has asked that each Bishops' Conference choose an appropriate day in their nation to hold a 'Day of Prayer' for the victims and survivors of sexual abuse. In England and Wales it will be on Tuesday 4th May. Let us pray for healing and reconciliation.

Crowning Our Lady: As next weekend is the first in May, we will have the traditional crowning of the the statue of Our Lady of Fatima at all Masses. Fr Paul

From the Saints

"The end for which God has instituted the priesthood has been to appoint on earth public persons to watch over the honour of His divine majesty, and to procure the salvation of souls"

(St Alphonsus Liguori, 1696-1787).

Pre-booking places for Mass:

Online bookings can be made on the diocesan website at

<https://massbooking.uk>.

Telephone bookings can be made by calling

07554 603972

Tuesday or Wednesday

2pm – 4pm or

Thursday and Friday,

5pm – 7pm.

Please do not phone the Presbytery. Due to the higher demand at weekend Masses, a pre-booked seat is not guaranteed if you arrive after Mass has begun. May I take this opportunity to remind you that the Sunday obligation is still suspended, and therefore I would encourage some of you to take advantage of attending Mass during the week if possible to help ease the numbers at the weekend. Thank you.
