The Fast Track to True Success

The lesson Jesus has been teaching by His example since the day of His birth, He now teaches with words, as we hear in our Gospel Reading this week. And this lesson is a big one: The Nature of True Success.

When Jesus and His apostles sit down to relax in Capernaum after a day of walking the hot, dusty roads of Galilee, He knows exactly what they have been talking about - success, glory, greatness. But the apostles are too embarrassed to admit it. But our Lord's response is surprising. He doesn't tell them that they shouldn't desire to excel, to achieve, to do great things. He doesn't condemn that very normal impulse - because He knows that achieving things, making a difference in the world, is a basic need felt by every human heart. This is one of the purposes of our lives: being a sign of God's goodness by making a positive difference in the world. So, Jesus doesn't scold them for wanting to do something great. Instead, He tells them what true greatness really is.

The great task for every Christian isn't to achieve fame and fortune, popularity, power, and worldly success. Rather, it's the same task that Christ himself undertook: to serve others, to make others happy, to reach out to those who are weak and in need. Greatness in Christ's Kingdom is equated with humility, an attitude of the heart that puts the good of others ahead of one's own preferences: it's self-giving, NOT self-getting.

He doesn't say to His apostles, "Don't strive to achieve great things," but He does point out where true, lasting, fulfilling greatness lies - in loving one's neighbour as He has loved them. Jesus is the Servant-Lord; we, His faithful disciples, are called to follow in those demanding footsteps, learners following Our Lord's example.

Most of us are able to see the beauty of humility and humble service to others; we can understand intuitively why this is the mark of True Success. But putting this idea into practice is not so easy. We are willing to commit "random acts of kindness" now and then, because they make us feel good. But real progress requires a deeper commitment.

The best place to implement this plan for True Success is at home. It is in our closest relationships, those of our family, that our natural selfishness tends to come out most easily. And so, to transform those tendencies, to purify them and grow in the virtue of humility, we need to attack them there. Humbly serving our spouse, our siblings, our parents - this is true Christ-like virtue, this is where we forge a Christ-like heart.

Our family members know us well; they are familiar with our tantrums and egocentric habits. As a result, they aren't usually impressed by an extra act of kindness, service, or self-control, by an extra effort to be patient or to hold our tongue. That's why the home is the best place to grow in humility and pursue True Success. Serving others when there is no reward or recognition involved is the best way to follow Christ's example and purify our hearts - after all, His service to others got Him crucified!

If we gradually learn to think about others before ourselves inside the four walls of our home, it will become second nature to do so outside. And when that happens, we will be on the 'Fast Track to True Christ Like Success.' True disciples of our Lord, reflecting Him.

After Sunday Masses: There will be tea, coffee and squash in the hall after both the 9am and 11.15am Masses. Tea & Coffee money after Mass on Sunday 26th September, will be donated to Macmillan's Coffee Morning.

Fr Paul

Macmillan Coffee Morning

Saturday 25th September, 10am - all welcome. Email jeanlop48@yahoo.com. Fundraising page: <https://thygs.uk/BUU004245836>

Loughborough Food Bank: Our monthly collections for the Loughborough food bank will recommence on Saturday 25th September in the church car park from 10.30 to 11.00am. There have been some changes in the organisation of this at John Storer House. A shop system has been arranged using all contributions to the food bank including ours from St Mary's. Families will be asked to pay a nominal sum of £3 and then choose enough groceries for the week. Staff at JSH inform me that, along with this facility, free collections will be available for those who struggle to pay. Once again thank you for your generosity.

Jane Monaghan

Today is Home Mission Sunday when we pray for the mission of the Church in England and Wales. There will be a Second Collection to support the Bishops' work of evangelisation.

Organ Recital by Dominic Remedios has been rescheduled as a "Coffee Concert" 10am-10:30 at All Saints on Saturday 25th September; free entry, hot drinks provided.

Repository: Christmas cards, advent calenders, diaries and gifts, can be purchased on Saturday mornings, or after all weekend Masses.

Prayer for vocations to the priesthood and religious life

Leader: Please kneel for our prayer for vocations. Let us ask God to give worthy Priests to His Holy Church and Brothers and Sisters to Religious Orders.

All: O God, we earnestly beseech You to bless this diocese with many priests, brothers and sisters, who will gladly spend their entire lives serving Your Church and making You known and loved.

Leader: Bless our families. Bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for Your work.

Leader: Mary, Queen of the Clergy!

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God thrust down to hell Satan and all the wicked spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls.

Amen.

Hail, Holy Queen

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, hail our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To thee do we cry poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs of mourning, and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, O most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us and after this our exile show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement! O loving! O sweet Virgin Mary!

From the Saints

"If you cannot find Christ in the beggar at the church door, you will not find Him in the chalice."

(St John Chrysostom C349).

Pre-booking places for Weekend Masses:

Online bookings can be made on the diocesan website at <https://massbooking.uk>.

Telephone bookings can be made by calling

07554 603972

Thursday and Friday, 4pm – 6.30pm.

PLEASE NOTE: It is no longer necessary to book places for Weekday Masses

Please do not phone the Presbytery. A pre-booked seat is not guaranteed if you arrive after Mass has begun.

May I take this opportunity to remind you that the Sunday obligation is still suspended, and therefore I would encourage some of you to take advantage of attending Mass during the week if possible to help ease the numbers at the weekend. Thank you.
