Headteacher: Mr C Maher

The Church has chosen this Sunday, also known as 'Good Shepherd Sunday' to pray for vocations to the priesthood. It is, therefore, also 'Vocations Sunday'. Our Lord in today's Gospel calls Himself the Good Shepherd (John 10:14) because He wants to take care of us all personally. "The sheep that belong to Me listen to My voice: I know them and they follow Me. I give them eternal life" (John 10:27-28). The priest is an 'alter Christus' or 'another Christ', whose task it is to bring those entrusted to his care to eternal salvation, to save their souls. Today, as we all know, there is a grave lack of priests, so this affects all of us, whether we like it or not. More and more parishes are having to be amalgamated, and in some areas one priest can be taking care of up to four churches. Daily Mass in a parish church is quickly becoming a thing of the past. So what do we do?

Our Lord told us what to do. "Pray to the Lord of the harvest, that He send labourers into His harvest" (Matthew 9:38). In other words we have to pray for vocations and we have to pray very hard. Where there are vocations, it is a sign that there has been much prayer. Where there are no vocations it is a sign that prayer has been lacking, or at the very least, there has not been enough of it. We can do all the promotion and advertising imaginable, but without prayer there will be no fruits. St Mother Teresa of Calcutta once said, "The most important hours for my communities are the four hours of community prayers each day." And the result is plentiful vocations.

Today we hear frequently that the seminaries are empty with many closing, and people even wonder if God has stopped calling men to the priesthood because He wants the laity to take over. No! The Catholic Church needs priests to function, otherwise it would not be the Church Christ founded. A Church without priests would be Protestant. Our Lord founded a hierarchical Church with bishops and priests to offer the Sacrifice of the Mass, to administer the Sacraments and to govern. God keeps calling people to this life, but do people hear Him? There needs to be a fervent Catholic environment in families, and the young must be taught not to deny God whatever He asks for. We must pray continuously for vocations from our own homes and families, and that those God is calling will hear that call.

At the beginning of the nineteenth century in this country, a woman spent an hour a day in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament that just one of her ten children would consecrate themselves to God. After some years, nine of them became consecrated religious and the tenth became the famous Victorian Cardinal, Nicholas Wiseman (1802-65).

St John Vianney (1786-1859) the Patron Saint of Parish Priests wrote, “Without the Sacrament of Holy Orders, we would not have the Lord. Who put Him there in that tabernacle? The priest. Who welcomed your soul at the beginning of your life? The priest. Who feeds your soul and gives it strength for its journey? The priest. Who will prepare it to appear before God, bathing it one last time in the blood of JESUS Christ? The priest, always the priest. And if this soul should happen to die (as a result of sin) who will raise it up, who will restore its calm and peace? Again, the priest ... After God, the priest is everything! Only in Heaven will he fully realise what he is.”

The Church and the world needs priests and we need holy and faithful priests! Pray for your priests that we live up to our calling. Could God be calling someone reading this to the priesthood or religious life? Do you know somebody who might make a good priest? Pray for them. Perhaps even suggest it to them. We can all be vocation promoters by helping those around you to live a Christian life. A priestly vocation, and therefore the salvation of many souls, could be depending on you!

Prayer to Saint Michael

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God thrust down to hell Satan and all the wicked spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Grub Club: During the Easter school break Grub Club ran three sessions. We served 187 three course lunches to 32 families, which meant that 74 children and 34 adults enjoyed a hot and nourishing mid-day meal. Each child also received an Easter Egg and all the children had fun with a variety of activities. We had some new families join us, which was wonderful, and we received many thanks and positive feedback from both new and existing families. Grub Club will be open again at May half-term for two sessions and in the summer school holidays for 11 sessions over four weeks.

We are looking for more volunteers. See the noticeboard at the back of the church, or contact Eileen Smith on 07855 456375 or Catherine Brady at catherinemarybrady@gmail.com for more information.
